EX-POLICEWOMAN assumes duties AS SHERIFF'S AID

NEW TORK, Dec. 26.—Deputy Sheriff Anna O'Shea, Ossining's ourted policewoman, has received her county gold badge as the first woman deputy sheriff. Sheriff-elect Charles E. Nossiter swore her in. Dr. Anna Harvey Voorhis, a member of the Civic League, which is selection of Mrs. O'Shea. "I am alsupporting Mrs. O'Shea. was elected ways ready to enforce the law." he supporting Mrs. O'Shea, was elected.

But Mrs. Sarah Davis, a Civic Lengue member, and Edgar L. Hyder, a lawyer who urged that Mrs. O'Shea be ousted from the police force, are still set against her.

"Her appointment is spite work on the part of some women," said Mrs.
Davis. "I do not oppose Mrs. O'Shea personally. But people here are as good as anywhere else and do not require her services."

When the men appeared Briggs said, "whether with the aid of women offered them Christmas supper and jobs in his sand works. In reply the hands.

A fight followed. Briggs was shot twice in the abdomen and face. His presided at a meeting of the Franco-require her services." Sheriff Wisendanger defended his 47,000 French war orphans.
